Day 4: With your weekend Pass you can take in as many performances as you are able, including a Cowboy Church service this Sunday morning. Entertainment starts early, and one of today's highlights is the Rising Star Showcase Finals. This is the fourth year of the "Country 103 Rising Star

Showcase", with an incredible line-up of talent, in two divisions; Cowboy Poetry, and Western Music. Competitors will be performing throughout the weekend, and you can be your own judge when the finalists are showcased on main stage Sunday afternoon. We'll finish up the evening with dinner & the final show of the Festival.

Day 5: We'll roll up those bedrolls, and board our "stage"- "coach", for an easy mosey back through the Rockies..... As we return through mountain meadow and ranchland, we reflect on the determination and hardships experienced in Cowboy country, and recognize, that as "western" Canadians, we truly have a heritage to be proud of.
